

2014
ANNUAL REPORT

“HOMEOWNERSHIP FOR LOW-INCOME RESIDENTS IS ONE OF THE BEST INVESTMENTS WE CAN MAKE IN THE PORTLAND AREA. HABITAT’S MODEL ALLOWS FAMILIES TO BUILD EQUITY AND BREAK THE CYCLE OF POVERTY.”

– Portland Housing Commissioner, Dan Saltzman

Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East revitalizes neighborhoods, builds affordable and sustainable homes, and empowers families through successful homeownership.

Our vision is a world where everyone has a decent place to live and where poverty housing is unacceptable.

DEAR FRIENDS,

Investment: To use, give, or devote time, talent or funds to achieve a desired goal.

Imagine living in a neighborhood you helped build. Imagine swinging a hammer and raising the walls of not only your own home, but all your neighbors’ homes, too. Imagine your neighbors speak 13 different languages, but instead of dividing, the differences provide a greater sense of belonging because you all share a similar experience. You all made investments in your families by building and buying your homes through Habitat for Humanity.

For the 45 families living on Southeast 171st and Division Street, this is a reality. This year, Habitat saw the success of an investment three years in the making as the final families moved into the largest Habitat neighborhood in Oregon. 120 kids now live in this community, and have safe, stable homes. Laughter and movement are prevalent, as the kids play together in their yards and on the community playground. Because these 45 families invested in their children’s futures they are building equity with each mortgage payment. They now have a sense of stability and pride.

And your investment in Habitat is doing more than ever before through our Neighborhood Revitalization Initiative (NRI). Focused in northeast Portland’s Cully neighborhood, NRI allows us to serve more families through a new, holistic way of working. We are providing guidance to the city as experts in affordable housing. We are collaborating with other Cully based nonprofits to support projects that improve the quality of life for all residents. We are investing in the residents of Cully so they are able to rise with the neighborhood.

In conjunction with NRI, our new Home Repair Program gives a hand-up to low-income families like the Johnsons, who already own their homes. The Johnsons have lived in Cully for 10 years, but haven’t been able to afford expensive maintenance. With Habitat’s 0%-interest loan, they purchased a new roof and gutters, making their home much safer for their three children. This year, Habitat completed 16 home repairs in Cully in partnership with other hardworking families.

But creating first time homebuyers still remains at the heart of what we do. In 2015, we break ground on 21 new homes at our Helensview development in Cully. We are also about to start a 25-home site in Gresham’s Rockwood neighborhood. And our construction crew is hard at work building 7 homes in southwest Portland’s Hillsdale neighborhood, which will be completed next summer.

As we look to the year ahead, Habitat is amplifying our efforts to ensure your investments in our work are carefully put to use. We are blessed to partner with volunteers, families, businesses, government and people like you, some of the most dedicated and caring people we have ever met. Thank you for your investment in Habitat and the families we serve.

PAUL GEORGE, Chair of the Board of Directors

STEVE MESSINETTI, President and CEO

□ CARMENZA KNOWS THE IMPORTANCE OF HAVING A PLACE TO CALL HOME.

As a social worker, every day she helps families who are looking for a stable place to live. So when Carmenza purchased her first home in northeast Portland's Cully neighborhood in 2003, she was especially grateful, and determined to fix it up and make it hers.

"I love my home!" said Carmenza. "I have done lots of work to it on my own. But upkeep can be quite expensive."

This fall, Carmenza applied to Habitat's Home Repair Program and received a 0%-interest loan used to give her home a much needed fresh coat of paint. This partnership was made possible through a Neighborhood Revitalization grant from Lowe's, who not only provided funds for Habitat's Home Repair Program, but also provided volunteers to help Carmenza paint.

"I am forever grateful to Habitat for Humanity and all the volunteers who came out to help support me in my dream of beautifying and preserving my home."

"I am independent and confident about our future."

□ THE DULALS HAVE DREAMED OF A STABLE PLACE TO CALL HOME FOR MANY YEARS.

Originally from Bhutan, the couple lived in refugee camps in Nepal for 18 years before finally coming to the United States in 2011 to create a better life for their family.

However, once in the United States, their four year old son was diagnosed with autism, and the Dulals made the tough decision to have Chhali stay home and provide constant care to their son. Because of this, Ganga is the sole income provider, working many hours as an operator for a medical device manufacturer.

In this tight rental market, decent housing is hard to afford, especially on one income. Their apartment was small, and had mold and leaking plumbing. It was dark and not an ideal place to raise kids, let alone a child with a disability.

This fall, the Dulals finished their 500 hours of sweat equity and signed the mortgage to their safe, affordable Habitat home.

"I jumped in the air when I received the keys," said Ganga. "Being a homeowner makes me feel free from so many limitations. I am independent and confident about our future."

BUILDING: BY THE NUMBERS

One year of Habitat's community impact
